

ABERHARTS GRATEFUL FOR HIS GUIDANCE

Biblical Quotation Gives Expression To His Views

CALGARY, Dec. 2.—Premier Aberhart of Alberta, addressing a gathering in the Calgary Protestant Bible Institute, which he founded, Sunday declared he was thankful for the guidance which had been given to him by his administration, elected last August on the Social Credit platform.

Premier Aberhart emphasized the General Epistle of James, chapter one, verses five and six. They read:

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

"But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind and tossed."

NEUTRALITY OF U.S. RIGIDLY MAINTAINED

Small Encouragement She Would Join Sanctions
Upon Oil

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Well-informed quarters said Sunday there had been no indication the United States was contemplating any immediate neutrality revision before these allies' taken to discourage any form of supplies to Italy and Rhiolopia.

The expression was elicited by London dispatches reporting Great Britain had found encouragement for the success of a possible oil embargo against Italy in hints that the United States might actually be effectively joining on such a move.

TWO-POINT STAND
A primary consideration stood at present as obstacles to direct United States participation in any form of sanctions against Italy.

The government's debt mission to pursue a strictly separate and independent neutrality in the Italy-Ethiopia war, and what other nations of groups of nations do.

The neutrality law is applicable to both belligerents rather than against one side, as in the League of Nations' program of sanctions.

SEVERE EMBARGOS
The administration has declared embargos on shipments of all implements of war and all rough by moral and financial pressure to prevent substantial quantities of such materials as oil, copper, zinc and steel, motor trucks and tractors.

PEEK, AS CRITIC,

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Authoritative sources predicted today that George H. Peck, United States government foreign trade adviser, would resign soon after making a "superfluous" report on the possible effects of the Canadian-United States reciprocal trade agreement. These authorities would not be quoted by name, but Peck was talked with Peck and felt sure he would sever all connections with the Roosevelt regime after giving his report to President Roosevelt, which he requested it.

THE EYES OF FIRST-BORN QUINTETS

Five Sons Would Have Lived With Expert
Care Given Canadian Children, Firm
Belief of Kentucky Grandmother

By MARSHALL L. SMITH
Edmonton Bulletin Special Correspondent

PAIDUACH, Ky., Dec. 2.—In a white, three-room farmhouse, 17 miles north of here, lives a grey-haired woman of 78, who follows with unusual interest the fortunes of the Dionne quintuplets. That keen interest is not hard to understand when you know that this woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Lyon, was herself the mother of quintuplets, all boys, back in 1896, almost 40 years ago.

"They all died, at ages ranging from 6 to 14 days," Mrs. Lyon is a little whiff as she says. "I'm sure I could have raised them all if they had had the attention the Dionne children have."

Mrs. Lyon is very interested in the events of today's world, even a little adventurously inclined. She looks out of the window of a new house at the brown, terraced Kentucky tobacco fields as she turns back of years to recall the night of April 29, 1896.

With her husband, Oscar Lyon, she lived then with their six children in a three-room farmhouse near Mayfield. Grover Cleveland was in the White House. France was the effect of concern on crops. The effect of every little thing on the significance of dreams.

DREAMED OF BABES COMING
JUST before the babies came, Mrs. Lyon had a dream. "I dreamed I was going to have five or six babies," recalls Mrs. Lyon. "I dreamed I was going to have five or six babies, and I was going to have five or six babies."

"The day before they arrived, I had a letter from my sister saying that she and my brother had had a strange dream about me having a number of babies, and I was going to have five or six babies."

"The doctor was worried, but I wasn't. I had sent for a neighbor. The measure was being taken. But she didn't get there until after the babies were born."

The big flying boat, under Captain E. C. Mack, was expected to reach Guang, 1,700 miles east, in 12 hours. A 40-hour flying schedule to Alameda, Calif., would be made if the ship is to take on mail.

The Philippine Clipper, it is to take for her first trip to the Philippines. The return trip was scheduled for 21 days after the China Clipper. The ship is to be loaded with mail, and will be expected to arrive in Manila on December 21.

IN LYONS QUINTETTE
The five Dionne quintuplets, all boys, back in 1896, almost 40 years ago.

In the fading photograph reproduced above lies proof of the birth, 40 years ago, of quintuplets to Mrs. Elizabeth Lyon, left. Hearing the legend hurriedly printed by the Mayfield, Ky., photographer submitted to picture Mrs. Lyon's five boys, the photo shows Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Paul Lyon a few days after their birth, all five comfortably cradled on the seat of a rocking chair. All five, however, were dead within 14 days.

I was all right, Dr. Matthews went back to Mayfield and told every body. I was all right, Dr. Matthews went back to Mayfield and told every body. I was all right, Dr. Matthews went back to Mayfield and told every body.

CROWDS JAM HOUSE
The first morning people began to come to see the babies. I had named them like I dreamed them. Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Paul. I was the only one who could tell them apart. Three had brown hair and dark eyes, and two had light hair and blue eyes.

"My babies were all fully developed, but they just started to die. That, and the crowds," she added. "I never saw the like. The road from Mayfield was black with people."

E. C. Carter declares

Appointed To "K" Division Of R.C.M.P.

DR. F. A. MACPHERSON
Sunday was the first day on duty spent at the new barracks of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, by tall, kindly, smiling Dr. F. A. Macpherson, of 1420 94 street, as the newly-appointed medical adviser to the famous force of Redcoats.

Dr. Macpherson succeeds in replacing Dr. Duncan Smith and takes his appointment from Ottawa.

As medical adviser to "K" Division, Dr. Macpherson assumes the responsibility of keeping every officer and man at the barracks in the pink of condition. Even Assistant Commissioner H. M. Newman will take his medical advice and orders from Dr. Macpherson.

When any case at the barracks develops into one where hospital treatment is necessary, Dr. Macpherson passes on his charge to the Soldier Civil Hospital, which is a medical board, which has Doctors S. Murray, Emerson Smith, Dr. G. Stuart and Harold Brown, in charge of the hospital.

Dr. Macpherson looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the work he will be doing at the barracks, said Dr. Macpherson to the nearest interest, realizing, as he said, that a fine time is ahead of him.

Dr. Macpherson took his degree at Western University, London, Ontario, in 1906, and for two years served as a resident in the Victoria hospital of that city.

He came west to Edmonton in 1911, married, and has two children, David, 11, and Audrey, 13.

A full report is requested, and members are asked to report on tickets in connection with the recent Centennial concert.

Time Will Vindicate Judgment of the League

Members and Show Wisdom of Action Greater Than the Risk

By CHESTER PREVEY
That the League of Nations' action against Italy was inevitable, dangerous and necessary is the considered opinion of E. C. Carter, secretary-general of the Institute of Pacific Relations, who is visiting Edmonton at the present time. Mr. Carter will leave the Hotel Canadian Club Tuesday at noon on "Conflict and Co-operation in the Far East."

Applying his remarks in regard to the European crisis, Mr. Carter said that the question of the League of Nations was a dangerous one, but nevertheless essential if a new development in the method of attaining world peace is to be brought about.

Mr. Carter thinks time will vindicate the judgment of the League members and will show that the wisdom of the action was greater than the risk.

Letting that public opinion in the countries involved is so overwhelmingly in favor of the League, it will only be a last resort and the risk taken by the League is not too great. He would not, however, say that the League is a new world war in the near future, but indicated that with this danger, it is not too much to maintain peace, there was every reason to hope that it would be maintained.

Mr. Carter spoke freely of economic and political conditions in Japan, and said that the present time making a tour of Canada, and that he would be in Vancouver, California, in the spring of 1928. This is the first time the League of Nations has been in Japan and the 1923 conference was held at Batavia, Holland.

Mr. Carter spoke of the war in Asia hanging on the wall of the distinguished visitors at the Macdonald hotel, brought to mind the verge of another armed conflict. What is Japan's aim in regard to Asiatic expansion? He asked.

WIDER MARKETS
The present goal of Japan in Asia is to get wider markets, the visitor replied. "The whole country is interested in this, and the Japanese are careful if Japan is to keep its position in the world, it must do so unanimously as far as political action is concerned."

Why has there been what appears to be a new drive on China? "The new drive on China is the result of the League of Nations' action in the Far East. The present time is a very favorable one in that England, France, the United States and Japan are all in a position to make a new start in the Far East, and the League of Nations is being very even to believe it will be successful for while China is a great power, it has been in previous engagements, yet Japan is more mechanized and superior in every way."

Market sentiment was bearish, with a recession at Liverpool exerting a depressing effect on Wheatpeg futures. Trading on the decline was quiet.

Current poor demand abroad for wheat improved but little during the week-end, when an estimated 400,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were sold for export.

Large Crowd Witnessed Good Clash At Arena—Sextests Give Finest Tilt To End Exhibition Round

By JACK DEARIN

Throbbing pulses of the rock-keyway series, lulled to rest since that memorable six-man playoff final last spring, were recurrent Sunday afternoon at another of those homeric clashes in Edmonton's third-and-fourth league at the arena. The first of a series of three, the first of the season, South Side Athletics for their second straight time, answered the victory call with a 3-2 triumph over Edmonton Athletics.

They were two of the fightingest junior teams the folks have seen chasing the little black biscuit over the arena ice. The first round was a close, tight, and exciting affair, with the fighting, robust young pugnaces, warring in a series of vicious, terror-paeanies.
